

Issue 37

THOUGHT
for the day

14th January 2008

LET YOUR VOICE BE HEARD

is the slogan for Elliott's

SCHOOL COUNCIL

Every tutor group elected a representative to make sure the opinions of all students are heard by the Headteacher and the Governors.

The next meeting will take place in Mr Scott's room (79) Thursday 17th January 2008. Lesson 5

Tutors please remind representatives.

We will be discussing several items including:

A NEW PE UNIFORM

for all students at Elliott to be launched in September 2008.

IMPROVING ELLIOTT

An invitation to all students to contribute their views to the actions Elliott expects to take following our OFSTED report.

TURN OVER

YOUR IDEAS

If you have ideas to contribute about any of these subjects please participate in the discussion.

WHAT SHOULD A NEW PE UNIFORM LOOK LIKE?

Think about Red, Black, White.....

Think about shorts, socks, leotards, tracksuits, tops, vests, t-shirts, sweatshirts, trainers etc...

Girls and Boys, different designs, similar or the same?

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Give your responses to your representatives.

Representatives: Bring these ideas to next School Council meeting.

NEXT WEEK: HOW TO IMPROVE BEHAVIOUR FOR LEARNING AT ELLIOTT

- Start thinking about it now
- Blue books issued this week are a start

WHO WEARS RED TOPS?

Answer STUDENT LEADERS

From next week Student Leaders will be wearing red polo shirts. Look to them for guidance as role models. More on this next week.
